Dear Sacred Heart Family,

Last week, as you know, my parents were visiting me, and it was their first trip to St. Mary's County. They had a wonderful time and to express their appreciation with everyone, wanted me to insert a brief note from them in the bulletin:

"We wish to thank everyone for making our visit here in the Seventh District (God's Country) so memorable. It was a joy to get to know you, to see your beautiful churches, to learn your history, to eat your special foods, and to experience your gracious hospitality. We look forward to coming back. May God bless you. – Deacon Wayne and Dorothy Lickteig."

Their visit was an opportunity for me to experience again the gift of my parents. The Church this Sunday, October 18th, is going to recognize the gift of another set of parents, Louis and Zelig Martin, the parents of St. Therese of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face. In honor of this wonderful gift to the Church of a married couple who became saints by faithfully living out their marriage vows, I will display a relic of both saints at the Masses this weekend for veneration, along with their picture. This Sunday would be a wonderful opportunity to pray in front of them, asking for their intercession for your family, your marriage, and all families and marriages that may be going through difficult times. Since marriage in the Church is a sacrament, all the graces needed to become holy are given in abundance to every husband and wife through the day-to-day living out of their married life. And God's grace is always there to help every couple, no matter their specific situation or difficulty. Through the intercession of Saints Louis and Zelig Martin, may God help all married couples!

May God bless you,
Fr. Anthony Lickteig
